

The Mass preface for the Solemnity of St Peter and St Paul.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,

Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For by your providence the blessed Apostles Peter and Paul bring us joy:

Peter, foremost in confessing the faith,

Paul its outstanding preacher,

Peter, who established the early Church

from the remnant of Israel,

Paul, master and teacher of the Gentiles that you call.

And so, each in a different way gathered together the one family of Christ; and revered together throughout the world, they share one Martyr's crown.

Extract from message of Archbishops:

"As I have loved you", said the Lord Jesus, "so you must love each other." (John 13:34). The lockdown has brought forth remarkable acts of charity, of loving kindness, from Catholics across our communities as they have cared for the needy and vulnerable. As we prepare to gather again to worship, let us, respectful of each other, come together in thanksgiving to God for the immense gift of the Holy Eucharist.

Our Lady of Perpetual Succour Church, Barton is open for private prayer:

Monday to Saturday 8am to 9pm and Sunday 2pm to 9pm. If you are passing Our Lady's, Barton do know you are most welcome into Church during those times. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament shall take place at WOODLANE (all welcome) Monday, 29th June: 11am to 12noon and Thursday, 2nd July: 7pm to 8pm. Please observe social distancing; alcohol-gel hand sanitisers are available. The Church porch at Barton is collecting food items to be donated to the YMCA food bank in Burton.
Thanks in advance!

Deacon Alex is enjoying parish life here at Barton. My advance appreciation for his homily for the Solemnity of St Peter and Paul!

OFFERINGS

Many thanks for your ongoing giving to the parishes during the lockdown which is now being eased. I am very grateful for all your church contributions, some giving is by direct debit and standing order (parishioners have done so for a number of years), thank you for your ongoing generosity. I realise too there are those who give when they attend and many use Gift Aid envelopes. I have your named Gift Aid boxes here for 2020/2021 (Barton and Woodlane), you can collect your boxes from BARTON CHURCH PORCH during the day or you can collect when life returns to a 'new normal'. I greatly appreciate the handed in new tax year envelopes. Thank you for your kindness to the parishes, to several charities and those near, dear and far in this summer season, Fr Eamonn.

'Be joyful always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in every circumstance.' | Thess 5:17

Dear Parishioners of Woodlane, Barton and Haunton,

Greetings on this Solemnity of St Peter and St Paul brought forward to this Sunday from 29th June. I am sure you are delighted at the prospect of meeting together again for Holy Mass after fifteen lock-down Sundays (See extract of letter from Archbishops, p.4). As from Saturday 4th July Masses at Our Lady of Perpetual Succour, Barton-Under-Needwood are formally open to your good selves. On Sundays be aware family / household groups should try to keep at least a metre apart from others. There will be a few chairs in the gallery, porch and hall with the doors open to aid listening and air flow. There remains no obligation to attend Sunday Mass and I well understand that some parishioners may wish to remain at home, however you may feel more at ease with attending a weekday Mass.

A prayer for our parishioners with wedding anniversaries

Maria and Neal Carlin of Barton celebrated sixty years of marriage last Thursday, 25th June, congratulations to them on their Diamond Jubilee! We prayed for them at Masses on the happy anniversary day and midweek. This oncoming Wednesday, 1st July, Sean and Paula Stanley celebrate their Silver Jubilee, every blessing to them. A special prayer for anniversary couples to say, adapted from loveJesus.com:

Heavenly Father, we praise and thank you for the privilege and gift of marriage and for the joy that comes from sharing our life together. We thank you Father for bringing us to this anniversary day, where we remember the vows that we made before you and pray that you would continue to bless our life together.

Lord, we pray that your love would increasingly shine through our marriage so that as we draw ever closer in our relationship to you, it may be reflected in our fellowship with each other and shine out to those beyond our home and family. Lord you have done great things for us and we praise and thank you for bringing us together and for being our strength and stay when times of difficulty arose. We pray that in the days that lie ahead, we may allow the Holy Spirit to flow through us so as to be a witness to the wonderful work you have done in our lives and may we encourage others who are setting out on the beautiful adventure of marriage. Continue to bless our lives together and may we grow ever closer to you and to each other in the days that lie ahead. Amen.

Mission Intentions: For families: to be places of prayer and love. Please pray for the safety and protection of our unborn brothers and sisters in the womb, those impacted by the Corona Virus, the dying and incapacitated, travellers, migrants and the homeless. We pray for young people, the Holy Souls, vocations to the priesthood, religious life, matrimony and persecuted Christians. Pray too for a deeper love in Christ's Eucharistic presence in our Churches. God Bless you all!
