

Our Lady of Perpetual help prayer: Mother of Perpetual Help, with the greatest confidence we come before you to be inspired by the example of your life. We think of you at that moment when, full of faith and trust, you accepted God's call to be the mother of His Son. Help us, your children, to accept with joy our own calling in life. When you learned that your cousin Elizabeth was in need you immediately went to serve her and offer your help. Help us, like you, to be concerned for others. We think of you, Mother, at the foot of the cross. Your heart must have bled to see your Son in agony. But your joy was great when he rose from the dead, victorious over the powers of evil. Mother of Sorrows, help us through the trials and disappointments of life. Help us not to lose heart. May we share with you and your Son the joy of having courageously faced up to all the challenges of life. Amen.

Extract from message of Archbishops:

"As I have loved you", said the Lord Jesus, "so you must love each other." (John 13:34). The lockdown has brought forth remarkable acts of charity, of loving kindness, from Catholics across our communities as they have cared for the needy and vulnerable. As we prepare to gather again to worship, let us, respectful of each other, come together in thanksgiving to God for the immense gift of the Holy Eucharist.

Dear Parishioners of Woodlane, Barton and Haunton,
Greetings on this Fourteenth Sunday of the year. I am sure you are delighted at the prospect of meeting together again for Holy Mass after this protracted period of lockdown. (See extract of letter from Archbishops, p.4). As from this weekend Our Lady of Perpetual Succour, Barton-Under-Needwood is formally open to your good selves. On Sundays be aware family / household groups should try to keep at least a metre apart from others. Please wear a face covering (except children under eleven), a scarf or similar is fine. There will be a few chairs in the gallery, porch and hall with the doors open to aid listening and air flow. There remains no obligation to attend Sunday Mass and I well understand that some parishioners may wish to remain at home especially if you are feeling ill, have a pre-existing condition or are immunocompromised, however you may feel more at ease with attending a weekday Mass. Holy Mass with a public congregation shall start on Sunday 12th July. Woodlane shall be open for Mass and private prayer on Mondays and Thursdays (See back page).

'Come to me all you who labour and are overburdened.' (Matthew 11:28)

From time to time we all feel a little weary. There are many triggers, some we are unable to identify but we experience the outcome, a certain heaviness and burden. The remedy is offered to us in the Gospel. We may say this is too good to be true. But our Lord always makes good on His promises – I WILL give you rest. Our part is to entrust our cares to Him (2 Peter 5:7) nothing is too trivial or unimportant, are we not through our Baptism, sons and daughters of our Almighty Father? We are asked to learn from the Lord. What is the lesson? To be humble and gentle, to admit our need, to be honest with ourselves and call out for God's grace. The yoke was placed over the backs of the oxen, the burden would be the item being carried, such as a plough. Our Lord, once an apprentice carpenter to his foster father, St Joseph may well have made many a yoke. The yoke and the burden are likened to the Commandments of God and the demands of carrying them out. What's more we have been given a heavenly mother Mary who cares about us. We are called to respond to God's promises - that's where Christian hope comes in. Peter Kreeft, a Catholic convert and philosopher spoke of hope as the life of the soul. In contrast to the vague sentiment of hopefulness or optimism the theological virtue of hope is a rock-solid certainty and anchor – not a wish or a feeling. The Spirit's life-giving work in the soul is to give the soul a reason to live and a reason to die, in other words Hope. Hope is the soul's food. Without Hope, the soul simply cannot live. Our seeking of peace and rest in our prayer is the result of God seeking us out. Hope is our response to His initiative.

Mission Intentions: For families: to be places of prayer and love. Please pray for the safety and protection of our unborn brothers and sisters in the womb, those effected by the corona virus, the dying and incapacitated, travellers, migrants and the homeless. We pray for young people, the Holy Souls, vocations to the priesthood, religious life, matrimony and persecuted Christians. Pray too for a deeper love in Christ's Eucharistic presence in our Churches. God Bless you all!
